

In conjunction with the Whitney/Aquilla Lakes “Wear It For Life” water safety initiative, all vehicles at the Whitney Project Office now have magnetic “Wear It For Life” signs located on the tailgates. This message will not only be seen by lake visitors but will also serve as a reminder to the public where ever the vehicle may travel. The magnetic signs will be distributed to all gate attendants and volunteers who assist staff around the lake spreading the message to an even broader audience.